SERMON-BASED STUDY

For the week of March 3, 2019
Heb 13:7-9

QUICK REVIEW

Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

ENGAGE WITH THE MESSAGE

- 1 This weekend we were reminded that Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. What does that mean to you?
- 2 What does that mean in the life of the church?
- 3 Moving forward, what do you see your role being as part of the body of Christ and Bay Life Church? Explain.

DIGGING DEEPER

- 1 2 Tim 2:8, ESV – ⁸ Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, the offspring of David, as preached in my gospel, ⁹ for which I am suffering, bound with chains as a criminal. But the word of God is not bound!
¹⁰ Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

Heb 6:11-12, ESV – ¹¹ And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, ¹² so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Looking at the passages above and your notes from the sermon, why is it important to look back at the lifestyle of Christ and the Apostles?

What are the main characteristics you see in their lives?

How well are you imitating, or not imitating, their lifestyles? What do you need to change, improve, or keep in your life?

2

Eph 4:14-15, ESV – ¹⁴ so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. ¹⁵ Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ.

The author of Hebrew's tells us to not be led astray by false doctrine. What is Paul's remedy and exhortation for accomplishing this task?

Practically speaking, what does that look like?

In what specific ways are you growing up in your faith? Are there areas of your life that need a greater amount of growth? Explain?

TAKING IT HOME

Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. He is also our example for right living. What specific areas has He challenged you to grow up? How do you see your personal growth in relation to the church's growth and vision moving forward?
