Sermon: How We Do Good

Key Passage: Titus 3:8-15 (ESV)

College + Career Pastor - Travis Lowe

Getting Started

1. What, if anything, stood out to you from this weekend's sermon? Did Travis bring anything to the text that you did not see at first?

2. Has there ever been someone in your life that you had to avoid in order to stay out of conflict with? Talk about how you go about avoiding some of those 'foolish controversies'.

3. What is a saying that you use or hear everyday? What are some sayings that you've taught your children or were taught yourself.

4. Take some time to read Titus 3:8-15. Make note of anything that stands out to you. Share your notes with the group?

Sermon: How We Do Good
Key Passage: Titus 3:8-15 (ESV)

College + Career Pastor - Travis Lowe

5. Verse 8 and 14 both say to devote ourselves to good works. What does that mean in your life? How does a devotion to good works help us be witnesses in this world?

6. Re-read verses 9-11. Besides the surrounding text, what do you understand from these verses? Why are they important where and how that we live today? What are some foolish controversies that you've either heard about or actually participated in?

7. Why should you warn the person who stirs up division before just walking away? How have you done this well, or not so well? What are some things that you consider to 'stir up division'?

8. What do you make of the 'Final Instruction and Greetings'? What do you think it meant to the original audience? What application do you see in the last 4 verses for your life?
