Life Group Study Notes Week of Sunday, May 10 Based on Sermon: Womankind (Part 2)

Spend some time answering these questions before going to your Life Group.

Haven't found a Life Group yet? Contact Jon Weaver at jweaver@baylife.org to get more information and find out how to join!

Getting Started

1	. What	does	the	creation	of the	e original	woman	speak	about	God's	love '	for r	nen′	?

2. How should the relationship between men and women be complimentary towards each other? How have the people in your life from the opposite sex helped you to be a better you?

3. Read 2:18-25. If you are married, where do you see your spouse as different from you? Where do you see your spouse as similar to you? How have your differences and similarities helped you to be better as a person?

4. What comes to your mind when you hear the word helper? How can being a helper be good? How can being a helper be bad?

5. If you are a woman, have you been a helper to the men in your life? Why or why not? If you are a man, have you been a hard person to help? Explain.
6. How do single women live out their purpose of "helping" through their singleness?
7. God created men and women distinctly different? What do you think was God's purpose in creating men and women differently? How has our culture bucked God's design in this area?
Digging Deeper

Men, what woman has been most influential in your life? What made them influence you in the way they have? Women, what man has been most influential in your life? What made them influence you in the way they have? Spend some time and determine if you are helping and influencing someone else. Ask God to reveal areas of your life that keep you from being the helper to others that you need to be.

